TIGER STADIUM

The Tigers' home park isn't shrinking—but the seating capacity of Tiger Stadium is down to 52,850 for the 1962 season.

Alterations in recent years and conversion of reserved seat sections to box seats have resulted in the official revision. As Executive Vice President Harry M. Sisson counts them, there now are 9,138 box seats; 22,210 reserved; 11,502 unreserved grandstand; and 10,000 bleacher seats.

Baseball has been played at the site since 1900, a year before the American League was born with the Tigers as a charter member. Known as Bennett Park at the time, it became Navin Field in 1912, Briggs Stadium in 1938 and Tiger Stadium Jan. 1, 1961.

The playing field and stands at Tiger Stadium are considered among the finest in baseball. Facilities for players, fans, press, television and radio personnel are excellent and improved whenever possible. Although occupied frequently by more than 50,000 fans, it can be emptied in less than 10 minutes.

The club's own farm provides the more than 10,000 square yards of sod which are needed annually to repair the wear and tear of both baseball and football on the playing area. Sprinkling and drainage facilities are among the best and the latest-type field cover can be placed in less than a minute.

STADIUM FACTS

CAPACITY — 52,850 (Attendance records on Page 7).

LIGHTING — Eight towers, 1,428 lamps of 1,500 watts each. Installed in 1948.

DUGOUTS — Connected with clubhouses by tunnels, visitors on first base side, home club on third base side. John Hand is chief clubhouse attendant and equipment manager.

CONCESSIONS — Operated by Detroit Sportservice, Inc.

TIGERTOWN

On the outskirts of Lakeland, Fla., less than a mile from Henley Field, where the Tigers pitch camp, all farmhands in the Detroit system annually assemble for spring training.

This base, established and maintained as a community in itself for clubs of the Tiger minor league organization, is known as Tigertown. It has been operated since 1953 and is looked upon as a model for purposes of conditioning and developing young players.

Tigertown has living and playing accommodations for more than 200 officials, managers, coaches, trainers and players. Lounges are located in each of the dormitories. Meals, prepared by Mal Murdock, Tiger Stadium chef, are served in a spacious cafeteria, to which game rooms and a snack bar are connected.

Each winter club officials move out of Tiger Stadium and set up executive headquarters at Tigertown in offices equipped with all the necessary facilities. The staff is headed by Vice-President James A. Campbell, prime developer of the camp, as administrator.

Four playing fields enable eight full squads to engage in fundamental and competitive activity simultaneously under observation from a central tower. The diamonds bear the names of Detroit's greatest, Ty Cobb, Mickey Cochrane, Charley Gehringer and Harry Heilmann.

A converted airplane hangar which is the only enclosed field house in a baseball training camp permits the minor leaguers and Tigers to work out indoors when the weather is bad.

Extra facilities for player development include a line of pitching mounds, a special practice infield, and a "trap wall" for specialized training of infielders, along with batting cages.

Transportation service is provided on a daily schedule to downtown Lakeland for shopping and after-hour pleasure and to church services on Sundays.

FARMS FINISH HIGH

Duluth, winning the championship of the Class C Northern League, was the most successful of the eight clubs in the Tiger minor league system in 1961, but all three of the top farm clubs finished in the first division.

Denver was third in the American Association; Birmingham lost the pennant on the last day of the season and settled for second place in the Southern Association; and Knoxville was runner-up in the South Atlantic League.

For Duluth it was the first pennant in 24 years and came in Bob Swift's first year as a manager in the Tiger system.

Tiger farmhands were outstanding in all leagues. Twenty-four were chosen for all-star teams and six were voted Player of the Month awards.

Howard Koplitz, Birmingham right hander, was the most celebrated of all minor leaguers. He was Player of the Month twice—in July and August. Koplitz went on to become the Minor League Player of the Year in balloting conducted by Topps and The Sporting News. He won 23 and lost 3, had a 2.11 ERA, and was voted Most Valuable Player of the Southern Association.

Other players in the farm system gaining Player of the Month distinction were Dick McAuliffe, voted the honor in May in the American Association prior to recall by the parent club; Purnal Goldy, Southern; Jesse Queen, South Atlantic; Al Baker, Northern, and Vern Orndorff, Midwest League, for the month of June; and Gates Brown, Carolina, for the month of July.

Brown and Don Wert, Denver third baseman, were league batting champions, the former winning the Carolina League crown with an average of .324 and the latter copping the American Association title with a .328 mark.

Tiger clubs were also gifted with speed, two of their players winning base stealing honors. Ruthford Salmon excelled in the Carolina League with 38 thefts and Mike Holodick led the Alabama-Florida League with 56.

SPRING TRAINING

The Tigers have trained at Henley Field in Lakeland every year except three since 1934. During the war years, 1943-45, the team trained at Evansville, Ind.

Henley Field is located at the northern limits of the city and is easily accessible from the new Tampa Highway, Int. No. 4. Playing conditions at Henley Field are maintained as close as possible to those of Tiger Stadium. The field ranks with the best in major league parks.

A new clubhouse was completed in 1959, and has all modern equipment. There is a special press room and a dark room for photographers. The press box at Henley Field has been enlarged and modernized.

Tigertown, where Detroit farm system players are screened and trained, is less than a mile north of Henley Field.

FIRST IN FLORIDA

The Tigers' first venture into the Florida Winter Instructional League was a complete success.

The team of youngsters based at Tampa's Al Lopez Field and managed by Phil Cavarretta won the pennant, then whipped the pick of the rest of the circuit in an all-star game.

Three of the league's top six pitchers were Tiger farmhands. Southpaw Dick Smallwood was the big winner with an 8-1 record, while husky Leo Marentette's 1.15 ERA was surpassed only by Pedro Ramos, veteran of the Minnesota Twins' varsity. Doug Gallagher, another lefty, led in strikeouts with 69 in 66 innings pitched.

Record at New York: 12-4, vs. New York at Detroit: 15-6.

Defeated New York seven straight times between Aug. 24, 1958 and Aug. 4, 1959; also won 13 out of 14 decisions from New York between Aug. 26, 1957 and Aug. 4, 1959.

New York losers to Lary—Turley 5, Ford 3, Terry 3, Monroe 2, Byrne 2, Kucks, McDermott, Coleman, Maglie, Larsen, Maas, Ditmar, Shantz, Duren, Grba, Coates, Stafford.

New York winners over Lary—Ford 3, Byrne 3, Turley, Ditmar, Short, Terry.

BITS ABOUT THEM

AGUIRRE—Encountered physical handicaps in 1961 but relieved 45 times to win four and save six decisions. Received clean bill of health during off-season and expects return to fine form of 1960 campaign.

BERTOIA—Original Tiger bonus boy (1953), retrieved from Kansas City to help crippled infield last year. Played three positions in 24 games for Tigers, finished with more sacrifices (eight) than any batter on roster.

BOROS—Laid low by beaming July 9; out of action six weeks of rookie year with broken left collarbone after July 23 fielding collision with Frank Lary. One of club's hottest early-season hitters, over .300 until end of May. Hit .472 against Washington and .381 against White Sox at Chicago for top performances.

BROWN—Sidelined July 15-Sept. 3 with broken finger but set career record with 16 home runs. Topped .300 at plate until June 1; had 11-game hitting streak May 14-25.

BRUTON—Sensational with glove in centerfield and expert base stealer, 22 thefts on 27 attempts. Slow start with bat, but set career record of 17 home runs and was robbed of three more by temporary screen. Had perfect game (4-for-4) against Yankees June 16 and 12-game streak July 23-Aug. 4.

BUNNING—Had best season since 1957, first as regular, running five-year total of innings pitched to 1,257 and strikeouts same period to 955. Posted four shutouts and pitched all but final out of fifth, which would have been third in league. Best performance: two-hitter at Washington (6-0) Aug. 25; also had four four-hitters. Won five from Washington, four from Los Angeles without loss to either club.

CASH—Eighth Tiger to win American League batting crown (22nd title for club) with .361 highest Tiger average since 1937. Led league with 193 hits and 19 intentional walks. Second in slugging at .662 and walks with 124; fourth with 132 RBI and 119 runs. Set club record for left-handed hitters with 41 home runs (sixth in league). Led club driving in runs and advancing runners, figured on percentage. Hit season high of .381 on June 27; had streaks of 12 games June 3-13 and 11 games May 15-26; three games longest without hit. (See page 18 for analysis of championship batting record.)

COLAVITO—Tied American League record with four home runs in doubleheader at Washington Aug. 27; three in second game to tie club record. Hit 45 homers (fifth in league), Tigers' highest total since 1938. First batter of year to connect in all American League parks; 54th in major league history with 200 homers in career. Had streaks of 15 games June 2-15 and 14 games Aug. 18-31. Led league outfielders with 16 assists from new position in left field; third in RBI with 140 and runs scored with 129. Played all 163 Tiger games, total equalled by only one league rival.

FERNANDEZ—Handicapped by pulled leg muscle but played 133 games and posted second-highest batting average of major league career.

FOX—Strong man of bullpen although out of action July 20-Aug. 20 with arm trouble. Posted lowest earned run average (1.42) among all American League pitchers in 30 innings; only mark in league below 2.00. Relieved 39 times to win five and save eight games.

FOYTACK—Flashed new knuckleball for first time to beat Minnesota, 8-3, final day of 1961 season. Went to bullpen June 1 after up-and-down starting role, finished strong after middle of July to nail down solid comeback from dismal campaign in 1960 when disabled more than month.

FREEHAN—Signed bonus contract in June following sophomore year at University of Michigan. Rang bell at both Duluth and Knoxville, then with Tigers in final four games, hitting .400 and showing remarkable skill behind plate. Ticketed for Denver in 1962 but could be in Tiger uniform before end of season.

KLINE—Started eight times, relieved twice after arrival from Los Angeles Aug. 10 to post impressive 3.05 ERA with 5-3 record in Tiger uniform.

BITS ABOUT THEM

JONES—Important off-season addition via trade with Houston Colts, who got veteran curve ball star in National League expansion draft from San Francisco. Reached peak 1959 with 21-15 mark, leading league in number of victories. Notched 18 victories following season, was 8-8 in 128 innings last year when Jones felt not used enough. Pitched regulation no-hitter 1955, seven-inning no-hitter 1959.

KALINE—Second in American League batting race at .324. Led league with 41 doubles, fifth with 116 runs scored. Thrown out only once while stealing 14 bases. Had two perfect days (4-for-4) against Boston Sept. 7 and New York Sept. 16. Registered 22-game hitting streak July 6-30, longest of season for Tigers, matching club's longest since 1935. Picked for American League all-star fielding team.

KOPLITZ—Pride of Tiger farm system, named Minor League Player of Year after 23-3 record and 2.11 ERA at Birmingham. July-August Player of the Month, also Southern Association All-Star and Most Valuable Player. Eighteen complete games included no-hitter and two-hitter. Won two more without loss in four games with Tigers in September.

LARY—Tigers' biggest winner since 1946. Missed no-hitter against Chicago April 14 on scratch single by Jim Landis off Chico Fernandez glove. Fanned 10 against Los Angeles July 9 for career high. Hurlled four shutouts, one-hitter, three-hitter, two four-hitters. Led league in complete games with 22; second in total victories with 23; second in innings pitched with 275 for seven-year total of 1,799. Handled 88 fielding chances, 11 more than any other pitcher in league, with only one error for place on American League all-star fielding team. (See Page 23 for lifetime record against New York).

MAXWELL—Club's busiest pinch hitter with 56 appearances. On base 24 times, pinch hit average of .267.

McAULIFFE—Exciting young left-handed hitter called up from Denver June 22 to plug infield injury gaps. Hit safely first game in majors, homered off southpaw pitcher second game, totalled 22 extra-base hits among 73 blows.

MORTON—Developed into club's leading pinch hitter after getting big chance because of another player's holdout. Posted .297 average for 43 appearances.

MOSSI—Came back strong from arm miseries at close of previous season but was frequently involved in one-run decisions, winning five and losing four. Lost three 1-0 games during season. Third in league with ERA of 2.96. Best performances: two-hitter at Washington May 4 (6-0) and three hitter against Cleveland Aug. 6 (2-1). Also had two four-hitters. Beat Washington four times, Chicago three without loss. Took part in eight double plays to tie for league lead among pitchers.

OSBORNE—Walked 11 times, fanned only five times to reach base 21 times on 54 pinch hit assignments.

REGAN—Had five victories without defeat after first seven appearances (four as starter) before May 22. Lost two of next three starts and started only once after July 21, relieving 16 times in season.

ROARKE—Gave club valuable help behind plate with Brown on sideline, playing 86 games for first major league experience.

WERT—American Association batting champion with .328 average at Denver after jump from Class B to Class AAA in one season. Excellent defensive third-baseman.

WERTZ—Former Tiger getting new start after purchase from Boston last Sept. 8. Appeared in only eight games but scheduled to join pinch-hitters and handle emergency duty at first base.

WOOD—Led league with 14 triples; third in stolen bases with 30, highest total for Tigers since 1932. Thrown out only nine times. Missed only one game of rookie season. Charged with 25 errors but only six after July 23 and two of those in final two games of season. Named to Kids all-rookie team. Had perfect day (5-for-5) at Chicago Aug. 8 and batted .408 against White Sox for season. Finished year with nine-game hitting streak and connected in 17 of last 18 games. Established major league record with 141 strikeouts; tied major league mark with six in two consecutive games at Baltimore Sept. 4.

MANAGER OF THE YEAR

Bob Scheffing's feat of lifting the Tigers from sixth place to second in 1961 with a record of 101-61 in his first season at the helm put the big fellow in a class with two Detroit managers now in the Hall of Fame.

It also won for Scheffing the title of "Manager of the Year" in the American League from both the Associated Press and United Press International.

The only other Tiger teams ever winning 100 games were piloted by Mickey Cochrane in 1934 and Hughie Jennings in 1915. Cochrane's team won a pennant; Jennings in 1915 saw the Tigers edged out by Boston.

The 1961 Tigers had the advantage of a 162-game schedule. But after 154 games, the previous limit, they had 95 victories for the best Tiger record at that distance since Red Rolfe's second-place club in 1950. Altogether, only four Tiger teams won as many as 95 games during the 154-game era.

The 1961 Tigers' winning percentage of .623 has been topped only three times in the club's history. Again it was Cochrane (.656 in 1934) and Jennings (.649 in 1915 and .645 in 1909) who turned the trick.

Scheffing's success with the lightly-regarded Tigers, who won only 71 games the previous year, was considered more remarkable because of injuries to key players like Dick Brown, Steve Boros, Terry Fox and Hank Aguirre during the season.
